13 THE COURT: Thank you.

14 And, Mr. Dunn, sir, can you please state your full 15 name for my record?

16 THE DEFENDANT: Daniel Austin Dunn.

17 THE COURT: All right. Now, Mr. Dunn, you and I have 18 been together on two prior occasions now via video for your 19 initial appearance and your arraignment. We are scheduled
20 today to proceed on the Government's motion for detention.

21 I will just have the Government confirm at this time
22 that they persist in the request to detain?

23 MS. SMITH: Yes, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: And, Ms. Adams, I'll have you confirm
25 that you and your client continue to persist in your request

1 for a contested detention hearing?

2 MS. ADAMS: Yes, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: All right, so at this time, I'll confirm 4 that each of the Government and Defense counsel have had an

8 MS. ADAMS: Yes, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Okay, and is this a presumption case?

10 MS. SMITH: I do not believe it is, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Okay, and Ms. Adams, do you concur that 12 this is not a presumption case?

13 MS. ADAMS: Yes, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: All right, in light of that then, Mr.
15 Dunn, I'm going to ask if you'll please take a seat at the 16 table?

17 And the Government may call its first witness.

18 MS. SMITH: Yes, Your Honor. The Government calls

2 microphone, as well as spell it?

3 THE WITNESS: Jeffrey Brian Cotner, J-E-F-F-R-E-Y,

5 THE COURT: Thank you.

6 You may proceed.

7 MS. SMITH: Thank you.

8 DIRECT EXAMINATION

9 BY MS. SMITH:

10 Q Good morning, Agent Cotner. Can you say what agency
11 you're with, please?

12 A FBI.

13 Q And how long have you been with the FBI?

14 A I joined the FBI in November of 2006.

15 Q Okay, and within that agency, what are your duties?

16 A I'm currently assigned to investigate domestic 17 terrorism as a special agent.

18 Q Okay, and in your capacity as an FBI agent in that 19 role, did you become involved in an investigation that led to 20 the indictment of Daniel Austin Dunn?

21 A Yes.

22 Q And do you see Mr. Dunn in the courtroom?

23 A Yes, I do.

24 Q Would you point him out and describe something he's 25 wearing, please?

1           A     Right here at this table with the glasses and face
2 mask.

3           MS. SMITH:   Okay, Your Honor, will the record reflect
4 that Agent Cotner has identified Daniel Austin Dunn?

5           THE COURT:   The record shall so reflect.

6           MS. SMITH:   Thank you.

7 BY MS. SMITH:

8           Q     Now how did you get involved or how did you know
9 about this investigation?   What got your attention?

10          A     The FBI received information that Mr. Dunn was 11 posting threats towards law enforcement on the Internet, using 12 his Facebook and Twitter accounts.   From approximately June 1st
13 to June 6th, he made a series of threats at various times
14 throughout the day.

15          Some examples of the threats were shoot them, line them up
16 and shoot them, start shooting back.   And he has over 1,800
17 followers on Facebook friends and over 2,000 Twitter followers.

18          Q     Okay, when you are saying the threats were shoot
19 them, when you're talking about them, who was Mr. Dunn
20 referring to?

21          A     He was referring to law enforcement.   This was also 22 during a period of civil unrest with ongoing protest and riots.

23          Q     Okay, this was the unrest that happened following the 24 death of George Floyd, correct?

25          A     Yes, ma'am.

1           Q     Okay, and how do you know that it was this Defendant,
2 Daniel Dunn, who was posting those threats?

3           A     The profile pictures on his social media accounts
4 matches his driver's license photo.

5           Q     Okay, and did these threats result in responses from 6 other people?

7           A     Yes, some of his Facebook friends did respond I
8 concur, that's me at the Dallas Police Department, and direct 9 our raids towards the proper location or something similar to 10 that effect.

11          Q     Okay, so once you discovered that Mr. Dunn was 12 posting these threats and people were responding, what did you
13 do in your investigation?

14          A     Let's see. We -- I started writing a search warrant
15 for his social media accounts, his Facebook account, his 16 Twitter account, and a search warrant for his residence.

17          Q     Okay, and were you able to get those search warrants
18 signed?

19          A     Yes.

20          Q     All right, and so you were able to in fact confirm 21 that those threats being posted were from Mr. Dunn's account
22 based on the Facebook and Twitter accounts?

23          A     Yes.

24          Q     Okay, and then, what did -- when did you perform a
25 search on his residence?

1           A     June 9th, I believe.

2           Q     Okay, and when you did conduct that search warrant,
3 did you find anything illegal in his home?

4           A     There was a small user quantity of marijuana on the 5 coffee table in the living room, along with a bong.

6           Q     Okay, and then, did you also find firearms?

7           A     Yes, we found three firearms, a .40 caliber pistol, a
8 12 gauge shotgun, and a .270 caliber hunting rifle.

9           Q     Okay, were -- and those were in the same house with 10 the marijuana; is that correct?

11          A     Yes, ma'am.

12          Q     Okay, do you have information about whether or not 13 Mr. Dunn is a regular marijuana user?

14          A     I do.

15          Q     And what is that?

16          A     We -- someone in the FBI talked to his Denton County
17 probation officer. And she advised that he, from November 2014
18 to May 2019, he failed his drug test approximately 23 times.
19 Most of those were for marijuana, but six of them were for 20 cocaine.

21          Q     Okay, and where was Mr. Dunn on probation?

22          A     I'm sorry, what?

23          Q     Where was he on probation?

24          A     It started in Lubbock County, but he transferred to 25 Denton County.

1           Q     Okay, and are you aware of what Mr. Dunn was on
2 probation for?

3           A     Yes.

4           Q     And what are those? What's his criminal history?

5           A     In September of 2012, Mr. Dunn was arrested by the 6 Lubbock Police Department for public intoxication and 7 discharging a firearm in a municipality.

8                     And during this incident, he got into a dispute with 9 another male over a female and fired his weapon during that 10 dispute.

11                    A few weeks after that, he was arrested again by Lubbock
12 Police Department for, let's see, stalking, tampering with a
13 witness, I'm sorry, stalking, retaliation, public intoxication,
14 and unlawful carrying of a weapon.

15           Q     Okay.

16           A     During this incident, he had a double serrated knife
17 on him. That is considered a dagger and is illegal in the 18 state of the Texas. He allegedly slashed the tires of the 19 victim's vehicle that he had the dispute with.

20                    And then, a few weeks after that, now in October of 2012,
21 he was arrested again by Lubbock Police Department. This time,
22 he was arrested for coercion, tampering with a witness, and
23 stalking. During this incident, he allegedly fired a B.B. gun
24 into or at the victim's house.

25           Q     Okay, and from those incidents, was he -- he was not

1 convicted of all those different charges; is that correct?

2 A Correct, those charges were combined or reduced down
3 to two charges. And he served six years probation for the 4 retaliation and 24 months probation for the unlawful carrying
5 of a weapon.

6 Q Okay, and in your investigation, are you aware of 7 whether or not he was successful on his probation? Let --

8 A Due to the drug tests, he violated his probation
9 several times.

10 Q Okay, in fact, were there two motions to adjudicate
11 his probation based on his violations?

12 A I believe so.

13 Q And then, he finally successfully completed his 14 probation in April of this year; is that correct?

15 A Yes.

16 Q And then, June of this year is when you found the 17 firearms and the marijuana in his home, correct?

18 A Yes.

19 Q Has he admitted or has anyone that is close to him
20 told you during your investigation that he continues to smoke
21 marijuana?

22 A His girlfriend was interviewed and she said that she 23 brought the marijuana from the state of Washington, where it's 24 legal, and that it was hers and the bong was hers, but that he 25 had smoked it occasionally with her.

1 Q Okay. Now did you have an opportunity to interview
2 Mr. Dunn's probation officer that was supervising him?

3 A I talked to her on the telephone, yes.

4 Q And based on your interview with her, do you have 5 reason to believe that he would be a danger to the community if
6 released?

7 A Yes, some of the information that she provided was 8 that he is strongly anti-government, can become violent if 9 somebody says the wrong thing.

10 She said that he told her that she was the only person in 11 law enforcement that he did not want to kill. She believed him
12 to have firearms in his residence. This is prior, I mean,
13 before we executed the search warrant.

14 And she also said that he's been conducting martial arts
15 that involve stick fighting and knife fighting. So that was 16 because of all these reasons in his criminal history and the 17 threats towards law enforcement, that's why the S.W.A.T. team
18 was used to affect the arrest and search.

19 Q Okay. And when you searched his home, does he live
20 by himself or what are the circumstances of where he lives?

21 A He lives on I'd say five to six acres. His parents
22 have a house on that land and then he has a one bedroom, one
23 bath house also on the land.

24 Q Okay.

25 A And in that house was his girlfriend at the time of

1 the search.

2 Q All right. Now are you familiar with Mr. Dunn's
3 military record?

4 A Yes.

5 Q And what did you learn about that in your
6 investigation?

7 A We obtained his military records and I reviewed them.
8 And in 2010, he signed a eight-year commitment with the U.S.
9 Marine Corps Reserves.

10 And in December of 2012 after he was arrested by Lubbock
11 Police Department, his chain of command recommended that he be 12 discharged and that he receive other than honorable discharge.
13 However, he ultimately did receive a honorable discharge.

14 Q And do you have any idea of why that was?

15 A I asked a lady with -- that's in the military that 16 serves on our National Joint Terrorism Task Force. And she 17 said that it has to be pretty egregious to get the other than 18 honorable and that he would have needed a conviction on his 19 criminal history to get that at that time.

20 Q Okay.

21 A He didn't have it and I guess he actually technically 22 wasn't convicted since he served the probation.

23 Q Okay, and so nevertheless, he did not complete the 24 eight years he signed up for; is that correct?

25 A Correct.

1           Q     Now based on all these things that you discovered in
2     your investigation, including the facts of this case, do you
3     feel like Mr. Dunn would be a danger to the community if
4     released?

5           A     Yes.

6           MS. SMITH:   We pass the witness, Your Honor.

7           THE COURT:   Thank you.

8           Ms. Adams?

9           MS. ADAMS:   Thank you.

10                           CROSS-EXAMINATION

11     BY MS. ADAMS:

12           Q     I'm so sorry, please tell me your name again?

13           A     It's Jeff Cotner.

14           Q     Cockner?

15           A     Cotner.

16           Q     Cotner, I'm sorry.

17           A     Yes, ma'am.

18           Q     Thank you.   Mr. Cotner, are you familiar with a
19     social media platform such as Facebook and Twitter?

20           A     Yes.

21           Q     And do you understand that there's a difference
22     between a person creating a post and sharing a post?

23           A     Yes.

24           Q     Okay.   And in fact, several of the posts at issue
25     today are shares of someone else's posts, correct?

1 A Some of them are.

2 Q Okay, and which ones?

3 A I know he posted a picture of some police officers in 4 riot gear that are splattered in paint, that has a caption that
5 says something to the effect of this is an effective way to, I
6 don't know, cause problems for the riot police.

7 Q Uh-huh.

8 A And that was a re-post.

9 Q Okay, and what about the one where he says about
10 lining up or shooting back? What about that one?

11 A I would have to see it. I can't --

12 Q Okay.

13 A -- tell you off the top of my head. I know a lot of 14 them, he links pictures or articles and then makes a comment
15 along with it.

16 Q Okay.

17 MS. ADAMS: May I approach the witness, Your Honor?

18 THE COURT: You may.

19 MS. ADAMS: (Indiscernible) as Exhibit

20 (indiscernible) a number.

21 THE COURT: Karen can give you a number, but -- and 22 have you showed the Government?

23 MS. ADAMS: I have additional copies.

24 THE COURT: Okay, she can give you a number. Yeah.

25 (Ms. Adams confers with the Clerk)

1 THE COURT: Yeah, and then, you can just give her the
2 stickers for right now, since we're trying to socially
3 distance.

4 MS. ADAMS: And, Your Honor, if you bear with me, I
5 will also have copies for the Court as well.

6 THE COURT: Thank you.

7 MS. ADAMS: May I approach?

8 THE COURT: I just need to make sure, have you
9 given -- if you have given her a copy, then you can approach.

10 MS. ADAMS: Okay. (Indiscernible) hand you. This is 11 going to be Exhibit 1, Exhibit 2. It's for Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Yes. And are these my copies or what you
13 want given to the witness?

14 MS. ADAMS: No, these are the only copies.

15 THE COURT: Okay, so let me give you these.

16 MS. ADAMS: We'll take them.

17 THE COURT: Okay, thank you. All right, Ms. Adams,
18 you may proceed.

19 MS. ADAMS: Thank you.

20 BY MS. ADAMS:

21 Q I'm showing you what's been marked as Defendant's
22 Exhibit 1 and 2. Are -- is that the post that says -- refers
23 to shooting back?

24 A This says start shooting back.

25 Q Okay, and that is -- and if you look at Exhibit 2,

1       that is the original post. Do you see that?

2           A       Well, these don't have exhibit numbers on them.

3           Q       Oh.

4           A       Okay, yes, I see that.

5           Q       Okay, so that would be a share of someone else's
6 post?

7           A       Well, the video and the caption below the video would 8 be a share, but the comments above that appear to come from 9 Austin Dunn's account that say start shooting back.

10          Q       Okay, so we're in agreeance that the original post
11 came from someone else with the video. And it says the user
12 was Mario Wynn (phonetic). Do you see that on Exhibit 2?

13          A       Yes.

14          Q       Okay. And you went through Mr. Dunn's Facebook
15 profile. He posted several other things, did he not?

16          A       Yes.

17          Q       Okay, and on -- let's see. And in regards to the 18 picture that you referenced stating -- regarding officers being 19 covered with paint?

20          A       Yes.

21          Q       That was also a re-post of someone else's post, 22 correct?

23          A       Yes.

24          Q       Okay. And in regards to their other post, I believe
25 mentioned that referred to something about like the boogaloo

1 movement or something like that? And that was also a re-post
2 of someone else's post, correct?

3 A Yes, but he does offer his own comments. I believe
4 Mr. Dunn said something to the effect of these are good people
5 or good boys.

6 Q Uh-huh, and the original, that post went to someone
7 else's page, correct?

8 A Yes.

9 Q Okay. Okay, and at the time, were you present when 10 Mr. Dunn was arrested?

11 A Yes.

12 Q Okay, and were there surveillance at his residence 13 prior to that?

14 A On that day or?

15 Q Just in general.

16 A Yes.

17 Q Okay, and during the surveillance, was Mr. Dunn seen
18 doing anything violent?

19 A No.

20 Q Okay, was he seen toting weapons in an aggressive
21 manner or in any manner?

22 A No.

23 Q Okay.

24 A The surveillance consisted mostly of just drive-bys,
25 because it's difficult to do surveillance where he lives.

1 Q Okay. And what time did officers come to Mr. Dunn's
2 home?

3 A 6 a.m.

4 Q Okay, so had the sun come up or was it still dark?

5 A The sun was coming up.

6 Q Okay, and how many officers were present?

7 A I don't know off the top of my head. There were
8 several officers because when the S.W.A.T. team does an arrest,
9 they have several people.

10 Q Uh-huh. And how did officers approach Mr. Dunn
11 from -- meaning did they get knock or did they break down the 12 door?

13 A I don't think they broke down the door. I was not at 14 his residence. I was over at the parents' house just to talk
15 to the dad and explain what was going on.

16 From what I heard, they were calling him out on a P.A.
17 system from the front yard and also called his phone. If they 18 broke the door, that's possible. I'm just not aware of that.

19 Q Okay, because that didn't happen.

20 A Okay.

21 Q In fact, is there a report that was created
22 afterwards or did you speak with any other officers who did go
23 to his door?

24 A There's a report that's been created documenting his
25 arrest and the search. I have not seen a report that documents

1 the -- like the damage or anything like that.

2 Q It's okay. There wasn't. So you -- are you aware
3 that Mr. Dunn actually came and opened the door for the 4 officers?

5 A I knew that he was taken into custody without 6 incident.

7 Q Okay. And so, there's no -- Mr. Dunn didn't try to 8 flee?

9 A No.

10 Q He didn't try to resist arrest?

11 A No.

12 Q Okay, and you also talked about firearms in his home.
13 Now Mr. Dunn is not a convicted felon, correct?

14 A Correct.

15 Q Okay. And you also spoke about there being alleged 16 marijuana in his home?

17 A Yes.

18 Q And you need a lab test to confirm that it was 19 marijuana, correct?

20 A His girlfriend confirmed that it was marijuana, but.

21 Q But you need a lab, because hemp is also quite 22 similar? And that's legal, correct?

23 A Yes.

24 Q Okay. You also spoke about his probation. And on 25 his probation, he was successfully discharged from probation;

1 is that correct?

2 A Yes.

3 Q Okay, and he had -- you mentioned he had probation
4 violations and each of those were dismissed, correct?

5 A Yes.

6 Q Okay. And let's see, no further questions.

7 THE COURT: Thank you.

8 Anything?

9 MS. SMITH: Nothing further, Your Honor. May he be 10 excused?

11 THE COURT: No, the Court actually has a question.
12 You all have mentioned a term that I would like the witness to 13 define or describe, so the Court has a better understanding.
14 The term boogaloo has come up.

15 THE WITNESS: Sure.

16 THE COURT: Can you advise the Court as to what that 17 term refers to?

18 THE WITNESS: Sure. The boogaloo is a slang term
19 that refers to a future civil war that a lot of white
20 nationalists and anti-government extremists believe is going to 21 happen and they are preparing for.

22 THE COURT: Okay, and I just want to make sure that
23 I'm understanding your testimony. Are -- is it your testimony
24 here today that you believe that Mr. Dunn is part of that 25 movement?

1 THE WITNESS: No, I don't have reason to believe he's
2 part of the movement, but he essentially endorsed the boogaloo
3 boys as good people.

4 THE COURT: Okay. And in light of the fact that the 5 Court's asked those questions, does the Government have any
6 further questions for this witness?

7 MS. SMITH: No, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: And Ms. Adams, do you have any further
9 questions in light of the fact that I asked those questions?

10 MS. ADAMS: Yes, I do, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Okay, please go ahead.

12 BY MS. ADAMS:

13 Q And Mr. -- so these people are alleged white
14 nationalists. But Mr. Dunn also supports Black Lives Matter.
15 So how -- those are conflicting views. So how does that work?

16 A It's not all white nationalists that believe in the 17 boogaloo. It's a lot of anti-government people as well.

18 Q Okay. And if -- referring to that post and I have it
19 if you'd like to see it, it wasn't the -- a man posted the post
20 with a very long paragraph about himself and what he believed 21 in. Do you recall that?

22 A Yes.

23 Q Okay. No further questions, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Thank you. If there's nothing further,
25 you may step down. Thank you.

1 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

2 (Witness is excused)

3 THE COURT: Does the Government have any further
4 witnesses to present or evidence to proffer at this time?

5 MS. SMITH: No, Your Honor, the Government rests.

6 THE COURT: All right, Ms. Adams, you may call your 7 first witness.

8 MS. ADAMS: Your Honor, I call Bailey Decker.

9 BAILEY DECKER

10 called as a witness for the Defendant, having been duly sworn
11 testified as follows:

12 THE COURT: Thank you.

13 Ms. Adams before you begin questioning your witness,
14 may you and the Government please approach?

15 MS. ADAMS: Okay.

16 (Bench conference with Ms. Smith and Ms. Adams, off the 17 record)

18 THE COURT: -- record?

19 THE WITNESS: Bailey Rae Decker.

20 THE COURT: Thank you. And, Ms. Decker, if I could 21 ask you for you to please spell your full name?

22 THE WITNESS: B-A-I-L-E-Y R-A-E D-E-C-K-E-R.

23 THE COURT: Thank you, Ms. Decker. All right, so
24 before we proceed here today, I know you've been here in the 25 courtroom and you heard the agent's testimony.

1           And so, before we proceed, I do want to confirm that
2           you certainly understand that you have the right not to
3           incriminate yourself while you're here before the Court here
4           today. Do you understand that?

5           THE WITNESS: Yes, ma'am.

6           THE COURT: And so, as it relates to any crimes that
7           you might be alleged to be involved in, you fully understand
8           that you have the right to remain silent and not to say
9           anything that might cause you to be implicated or to adjudge
10          your guilt related to those crimes. Do you understand that?

11          THE WITNESS: Yes, ma'am.

12          THE COURT: Okay, and you've had an opportunity as 13          well to talk with Ms. Adams, who is Mr. Dunn's lawyer, about 14          your constitutional rights. And following those conversations
15          you made the decision to testify here today; is that correct?

16          THE WITNESS: Yes, ma'am.

17          THE COURT: All right, thank you.

18          Ms. Adams, you may proceed.

19          MS. ADAMS: And Your Honor, before I get started, I
20          just want to go ahead and give the Government my exhibits if 21          that's okay?

22          THE COURT: Yes, please.

23          MS. ADAMS: And may I approach, too?

24          THE COURT: You may.

25          MS. ADAMS: Thank you.

12 A Yes, ma'am.

13 Q Okay, have you viewed the Facebook posts that are at

16 Q Okay, let's see. And do you believe that Austin

18 A I do not.

19 Q Okay, do you believe that he would threaten to injure
20 someone?

21 A No, ma'am.

22 Q Okay. Does Austin like really care about people,

10 A Yes.

11 Q Okay, and that made Austin, I'm sorry Austin, Mr.
12 Dunn upset?

13 A Yes, ma'am.

8 Q Okay, and why did you say that?

9 A I was nervous and scared. I didn't want anyone to 10 get in trouble because I don't know if Austin actually smokes
11 or not, because it was mine.

12 Q Okay. Now you guys did have some firearms in your
13 home?

14 A Yes, ma'am.

24 A Yes, ma'am.

25 Q Now does the home that you and Mr. Dunn share have a

1 landline telephone?

9 A Good morning.

10 Q You said you came down here from Washington state?

11 A Yes, ma'am.

12 Q When did you get here?

13 A I believe it was May 4th or 5th.

14 Q Of this year?

15 A It was a Monday, yes.

17 A Yes, ma'am.

18 Q A little over one month?

19 A Yes, ma'am.

23 him?

24 A Twitter.

25 Q Was it just Twitter and you had -- how did you happen

1       upon him? What, did you have something in common or?

2           A       I -- we just had common followers and we ended up
3 following each other at some point.

4           Q       Okay, and so you met him a year ago on Twitter, and
5 then, I'm assuming your relationship grew and you decided to 6 move down here?

7           A       Yes, I visited him about seven times before I came 8 down.

9           Q       Okay, so he was on probation a couple of the times
10 while you visited him?

11          A       Yes, ma'am.

18 since really nobody's working these days much, right?

19          A       Yes, ma'am.

20          Q       But you're telling the Court that you don't know if 21 he smokes marijuana or not?

22          A       We're not together every second of the day. One of 23 us has to go to the store or someone's sleeping.

24          A       Okay.

25          Q       So if he's smoking marijuana, he's sneaking around

1 and doing it behind your back?

2 A I would not say he's sneaking around.

3 Q He's not doing it in front of you, right?

4 A Yeah, but I wouldn't say he's sneaking around, hiding
5 it.

6 Q But you have not seen him smoke it is what you're 7 saying?

8 A Yes, ma'am.

9 Q And the marijuana was yours. You brought it from 10 Washington?

11 A I did not bring it from Washington.

12 Q Where did you get it?

13 A I believed I bought hemp from somewhere out here.

14 Q Were you smoking it?

15 A Yes, ma'am.

16 Q Now do you have a Facebook and Twitter? Do you post
17 on social media?

18 A Yes, ma'am.

19 Q Okay, what kind of sites do you post on? Do you have 20 any of these organizations that you belong to?

21 A No, ma'am.

22 Q Okay, and then, you were not -- you did not know Mr.
23 Dunn when he was actually on probation in Lubbock, right?

24 A No, ma'am.

25 Q You don't know what happened out there? You weren't

1 part of those things, right?

2 A No, ma'am.

3 MS. SMITH: Okay. I'll pass the witness, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: Thank you.

5 Ms. Adams, anything further for this witness?

8 step down.

9 THE WITNESS: Do you want --

10 THE COURT: Yes, I will take those back. Thank you
11 very much, Ms. Decker. Appreciate it.

12 (The Judge confers with the Clerk)

13 THE COURT: Ms. Adams, before you call your next
14 witness, can I just confirm, do you have them marked 1 and 2?

15 MS. ADAMS: No.

16 THE COURT: Oh, did he take them back?

17 Mr. -- Agent Cotner, did you back to your table
18 marked 1 and 2? Do you mind handing those to Karen?

19 MR. COTNER: Sure.

20 THE COURT: And we can give you these unmarked
21 copies. I need to make sure that I keep all the marked copies
22 with me.

23 MS. ADAMS: I understand, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: All right, and then Ms. Adams, just to 25 confirm, because at this time, you haven't moved to admit any

1 of these. Are you moving to admit Exhibits 1, 2, and 3, 4, and
2 5?

3 MS. ADAMS: Yes, Your --

4 THE COURT: And is this --

5 MS. ADAMS: -- 6.

6 THE COURT: -- 6, yes.

7 MS. ADAMS: Yes, I am, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: Is there any objection to --

9 MS. SMITH: No, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: Okay, there being no objection,
11 Defendant's Exhibits 1 through 6 will be admitted. All right,
12 Ms. Adams, you may call your next witness.

13 (Defendant's Exhibits 1 through 6 admitted into evidence)

14 MS. ADAMS: I would like to call Rick Dunn, Your 15 Honor.

16 THE COURT: Thank you.

17 RICK DUNN

18 called as a witness for the Defendant, having been duly sworn

13          Q     All right, and is it fair to say that Mr. Dunn does 14 most of the work?

15          A     Yes, ma'am, he does now, because I'm getting older
16 and I can't work as much as I used to.

17          Q     I understand. So Mr. Dunn is essential to running 18 the ranch?

19          A     Yes, ma'am.

20          Q     All right. Before he worked for the restoration
21 company, where did he work before that?

22          A     He worked for Arthur Surveying Company.

23          Q     Okay.

24          A     I think that's out of Flower Mound.

25          Q     All right, and where did he work before that?

1           A       I don't -- he worked for another surveying company.
2       He also worked for Johnson Machinery, based out of Irving.

3           Q       So is it safe to say that Mr. Dunn has always worked?

4           A       Yes, ma'am.

5           Q       All right. Do you understand the allegations against 6       Mr. Dunn?

7           A       Yes, ma'am.

8           Q       And do you know about social media like Facebook and 9       Twitter?

10          A       I don't know about Twitter. I do know about 11       Facebook.

12          Q       All right. And do you understand that there's a 13       difference between a post someone makes and a post someone 14       shares?

15          A       Yes, ma'am.

16          Q       All right. Have you reviewed some of the posts that 17       are in question?

18          A       Yes, ma'am.

19          Q       And are some of those posts that other people made
20       and Mr. Dunn shared?

21          A       Yes, ma'am.

22          Q       And you are aware what was going on in the world at 23       that time?

24          A       Yes, ma'am.

25          Q       All right. There were many videos of officers

1       harming people?

2           A       Yes, ma'am.

3           Q       All right. In one of the videos, it shows what
4       appears to be an older man on the ground and the man bleeding?

5           A       Yes, ma'am.

6           Q       All right, and that video's kind of upsetting?

7           A       Yes, ma'am.

8           Q       All right, and that upset Mr. Dunn?

9           A       Yes, ma'am.

10          Q       All right. And those types of videos, they upset a 11       lot of people?

12          A       A lot of people.

13          Q       All right.

14          A       Not only on social media, but on national TV.

15          Q       Okay, do you believe that Mr. Dunn would harm
16       someone?

17          A       No, ma'am.

18          Q       Okay, and do you believe that Mr. Dunn would shoot
19       anyone?

20          A       No, ma'am.

21          Q       Okay, now Mr. Dunn had guns in his home. There were 22       three guns that were taken. Did you -- do you -- are you aware 23       of that?

24          A       Yes, ma'am.

25          Q       All right, and did Austin own -- Austin. Did Mr.

1 Dunn own all of those guns?

2 A No, ma'am.

3 Q Okay, and which one didn't he own?

4 A He didn't own the shotgun, 12 gauge shotgun.

5 Q All right, and who is the owner of that gun?

6 A I am. It was a family gun as is all my guns.

7 Q Okay, and why did Mr. Dunn have the shotgun?

8 A Well, as being a ranch hand, we carry a gun with us
9 when we go out for various reasons, snakes, coyotes. We've had 10 instances of bob -- of mountain lions coming on our property,
11 killed four goats a year and a half ago.

12 Q Okay.

13 A We lose regularly chickens and cats. So we keep an 14 eye on bobcats and coyotes.

15 Q All right, so he wasn't -- Mr. Dunn didn't have the 16 guns to hurt anyone?

17 A No, ma'am.

18 Q And, in fact, you may not know this, but did Mr. Dunn
19 even have ammunition for the firearms?

20 A Not for the shotgun. He may -- he had some -- well,
21 he had a couple shells for the shotgun, which I -- which were 22 my shells also, but they were buckshot. I don't know that 23 he -- I don't know if he had any ammunition for the other guns
24 or not.

25 Q Okay, when Mr. Dunn was arrested, did he obey the 1 officers' commands?

2 A Yes, ma'am.

3 Q As far as you know? Okay.

4 A Yes, ma'am.

5 Q And when he was arrested, as far as you know, he
6 opened the door for officers?

7 A As far as I know, yes, ma'am.

8 Q All right. Did Mr. Dunn ever try to run from 9 officers?

10 A No, ma'am.

11 Q Did he ever try to resist arrest?

12 A No, ma'am.

13 Q All right, so he was very compliant?

14 A Yes, ma'am.

15 Q All right. Now does Mr. Dunn drink heavily?

16 A No, ma'am.

17 Q Does Mr. Dunn use drugs?

18 A No, ma'am.

19 Q Is Mr. Dunn a violent person?

20 A No, ma'am.

21 Q All right. And if the Court releases Mr. Dunn, would 22 you be willing to let him move into your home like from the 23 guest home to the main house?

24 A Yes, ma'am.

25 Q All right, does your home have a landline?

1 A No, ma'am.

2 Q Okay, if the Court releases him on a curfew and it
3 wants to call to ensure he's home, would you be willing to 4 install a landline into your house?

5 A Yes, ma'am.

6 Q All right. Are there any firearms in your house?

7 A Yes, ma'am.

8 Q Okay, and would you tell us about those firearms?

9 A As mentioned earlier, they're family-owned firearms
10 that have been passed down from my grandfather, who was a state
11 policeman in New Mexico, to my dad, who passed them on to me.

12 Q So they're historic heirloom-type firearms?

13 A Yes, ma'am.

14 Q Okay, would you be willing to surrender them to the 15 Court if requested, so that Mr. Dunn could be released?

16 A Yes, ma'am.

17 Q And does Mr. Dunn have a passport?

18 A No, ma'am.

19 Q Okay. Do you have a passport?

20 A Yes, ma'am.

21 Q All right, would you be willing to surrender it if 22 the Court requested so?

23 A Yes, ma'am.

24 Q All right. If the Court releases Mr. Dunn and he 25 breaks the rules, would you notify the Court?

1 A Yes, ma'am.

2 Q Okay. If the Court releases Mr. Dunn and he attempts
3 to flee, would you assist him?

4 A No, ma'am.

5 Q Okay, and is there anything else that you would like
6 the Court to know about Mr. Dunn?

7 A He's my son. He's lived with us. He's 30. He's 8 lived with us for 28 years of those 30 years off and on. So
9 I've never seen him in a fight. Never hurt anybody. He's very 10 compassionate. He -- in college, he did work for a day hab,
11 daycare place. Loves little kids. Wouldn't hurt a flea.

12 MS. ADAMS: Okay, nothing further, Your Honor. Pass
13 the witness.

14 THE COURT: Okay.

15 CROSS-EXAMINATION

16 BY MS. SMITH:

17 Q Good morning, Mr. Dunn, just a couple questions.

18 A Good morning.

19 Q So you said that your son had lived with you 28 out
20 of the 30 years. Was he living with you when the charges that 21 occurred in Lubbock happened? Were you in Lubbock?

22 A No, ma'am. He was in -- he was living in Lubbock at
23 that time.

24 Q Okay, are you aware of what those charges were for?

25 A Yes, ma'am.

1           Q     Okay, you heard -- when you heard the agent testify,
2     you knew what he had been in trouble for?

3           A     Yes, ma'am.

4           Q     And did you know -- you just said he's not a drug
5     user. Did you know he failed 20-plus urinalysis tests while he 6     was on probation?

7           A     I knew he had failed some. I didn't know how many.

8           Q     Okay, so he at least has been a drug user?

9           A     No, ma'am.

10          Q     You think he failed them because he was taking 11     something else or?

12          A     I don't know.

13          Q     Yeah.

14          A     He's not -- I know he's not a drug user.

15          Q     Okay, we understand what --

16          A     If you consider one time smoking a -- pot or joint or 17     whatever it is, if you consider that a drug user, then I guess
18     so, but he's not a -- he is not a drug addict.

19          Q     Okay, well, that's -- those are two different things.
20     I agree with you there. Those are two different things, but 21     you understand that a urinalysis is what -- is tests -- tests
22     for drug use, right?

23          A     Yes, ma'am, when the last one was a year ago, well,
24     he's had several over the last few years that he's passed. He 25     hasn't failed in quite some time now.

1 Q Okay, but he did fail several when he was on
2 probation, that's my point?

3 A Right.

4 Q Right?

5 A As I answered before, yes, ma'am, I know of some.

6 Q Okay, and so you're not -- you're not on social media
7 or are you on Facebook or?

8 A I am on Facebook.

9 Q Okay, that's the only one?

10 A Yes, ma'am.

11 Q Okay, and some of those posts, of course, were 12 shared. Did you see all the posts once Ms. -- once your son
13 was charged with this crime? Did you see all the posts or?

14 A I've seen all -- I've looked at all the posts that 15 were in question.

16 Q Okay.

17 A Well, in the time frame period, there's a lot of 18 posts that --

19 Q Oh.

20 A -- had nothing to do with it, too.

21 Q Right. I'm not saying all the Facebook, because that 22 would -- that could be a lot.

23 A Well, I meant in the time period.

24 Q Yeah. Yeah.

25 A Yes, ma'am, I did look back at it.

1           Q     Yeah. So a lot of them, he does say things like
2 shoot back, things like that, correct?

3           A     Yes, ma'am.

4           Q     There's several posts like that, right?

5           A     Yes, ma'am.

6           MS. SMITH: Okay, I'll pass the witness, Your Honor.

7           THE COURT: Thank you.

8           Anything further for this witness?

9           MS. ADAMS: Yes, one question, Your Honor.

10                               REDIRECT EXAMINATION

11       BY MS. ADAMS:

12           Q     You may recall, the post where it said shoot back,
13 that was officers were shooting tear gas, correct?

14           A     Yes, ma'am.

15           Q     So shooting back would be shooting tear gas, correct?

16           A     Yes, ma'am.

17           MS. ADAMS: Okay, no further questions.

18           THE COURT: Anything further?

19           MS. SMITH: No, Your Honor, thank you.

20           THE COURT: All right, thank you. You may step down.

21           THE WITNESS: Thank you.

22           (Witness is excused)

23           THE COURT: Ms. Adams, you may call your next 24 witness.

25           MS. ADAMS: I would like to call Ms. Judy Dunn, Your

1 Honor.

2 JUDY DUNN

3 called as a witness for the Defendant, having been duly sworn
4 testified as follows:

5 THE COURT: Ms. Dunn, before we begin, if I can ask
6 if you'll just state your full name for the record and spell it
7 as well, please?

8 THE WITNESS: Judy Elaine Dunn, J-U-D-Y E-L-A-I-N-E
9 D-U-N-N.

10 THE COURT: Thank you.

11 Ms. Adams, you may proceed.

12 MS. ADAMS: Thank you.

13 DIRECT EXAMINATION

14 BY MS. ADAMS:

15 Q Ms. Dunn, please tell us your age, if you don't mind?

16 A 68.

17 Q Okay, and what is your current occupation?

18 A I'm a retired homemaker.

19 Q And before you were a homemaker, how were you
20 employed?

21 A I worked as a substitute teacher throughout Denton,
22 ISD, Louisville Independent School District for the entire time
23 that my two children were in kindergarten through 12th grade.

24 Q Okay, and was that to assist your sons or?

25 A In my words, it was to help the teachers help my

1 children.

2 Q I understand. And before you were a substitute
3 teacher, what did you do?

4 A I was a flight attendant for Pan American World
5 Airways out of Miami, Florida.

6 Q Okay, and your job with Pan America (sic), is that
7 how you met your husband?

8 A Yes, ma'am.

9 Q Okay, and you currently reside in Bartondale?

10 A Yes, ma'am.

11 Q All right, and where did you live before that?

12 A In Double Oak, Texas, three miles away.

13 Q All right, and what are the daily activities of 14 taking care of the ranch at your house?

15 A Well, I deal with most of the inside things. Taking 16 care of animals. There's feeding the horses, ranch type of 17 work, tractors, hay, baling.

18 Q All right.

19 A Any type of outdoor work that ranch requires.

20 Q All right, and your husband mentioned that you have 21 another son, who is John (phonetic)?

22 A Yes, ma'am.

23 Q All right, and John lives in a host home right now?

24 A Yes, ma'am.

25 Q All right, and why is he there?

1           A     Because he has special needs.

2           Q     Okay, and does he require a significant amount of 3     care?

4           A     24/7, yes.

5           Q     And before that, John lived with you and your 6     husband?

7           A     Yes, ma'am.

8           Q     Okay, and when he lived with you and husband, did Mr.
9     Dunn help him or help you with caring for John?

10          A     Yes, there's very few people that we trust to take
11     care of John, because he's nonverbal. And so, his brother
12     Austin is the one that we trust.

13          Q     I understand. Okay, and let's see. Now years ago,
14     Mr. Dunn got into trouble. You're aware of that?

15          A     Yes, ma'am.

16          Q     All right, and he has completed his probation; is 17     that right?

18          A     Yes, ma'am.

19          Q     All right. Now when Mr. Dunn was in Lubbock,
20     he -- that's when he was stationed in the Marines?

21          A     Yes, ma'am.

22          Q     All right. And he was in the Marines for over a
23     year?

24          A     Yes, ma'am.

25          Q     All right, now how is Mr. Dunn currently employed?

1           A       He works for ADP Restoration and he also started his
2       own leather works business on his own.

3           Q       Okay, and before he worked for ADP, where did he 4       work?

5           A       Arthur Surveying.

6           Q       Okay.

7           A       They're out of Flower Mound, I think.

8           Q       Okay, let's see, does Mr. Dunn have a passport?

9           A       No.

10          Q       No, this Mr. Dunn.

11          A       I was going to say, no, he doesn't.

12          Q       Okay, just wanted to be sure. All right. All right, 13       now you heard the Prosecutor talk about Mr. Dunn having 14       probation violations for drug use?

15          A       Yes, ma'am.

16          Q       All right, and he was -- he used marijuana?

17          A       That's my understanding, yes.

18          Q       All right, do you know why he was using marijuana?

19          A       Probably because --

20                 MS. SMITH: Your Honor, I'm going to object to 21       speculation. She doesn't know he was using it, so she can't 22       speculate on why.

23                 THE COURT: I'm going to allow her to answer the 24       question.

25                 THE WITNESS: Well, I wasn't finished.

1 BY MS. ADAMS:

2 Q It's okay. You can proceed.

3 A Okay, Austin had two major back surgeries. And he
4 had stated that he didn't want to take drugs that would make
5 him addicted, like opiates.

6 Q Uh-huh.

7 A And that's why he wouldn't take any other kind of 8 drugs.

9 Q Okay. Now if the Court releases Mr. Dunn, would you
10 be willing to be like the third-party custodian to assist and 11 make sure that he got to Court?

12 A Yes, ma'am.

13 Q All right, and would you be willing for him to move
14 from the guest house into you all's main home?

15 A Yes, ma'am.

16 Q Okay, and you understand that you are aware of the 17 social medial posts, correct?

18 A Yes, ma'am.

19 Q All right, and do you believe that Mr. Dunn would 20 harm anyone?

21 A No.

22 Q Okay, do you believe that Mr. Dunn would shoot anyone
23 or cause anyone type of -- injure anyone?

24 A No.

25 Q And Mr. -- how would you describe Mr. Dunn?

1 A Compassionate, caring, helpful.

2 Q Okay. The -- you all have firearms in your home?

3 A Yes, ma'am.

4 Q They're your husband's --

5 A Yes, ma'am.

6 Q -- but they're heirloom firearms. Does Mr. Dunn,
7 your son Mr. Dunn, does Mr. Dunn -- he doesn't abuse alcohol?

8 A No.

9 Q Okay, he doesn't abuse drugs?

10 A No.

11 Q Okay, is he currently taking any type of medications?

12 A I'm not aware of any.

13 Q Okay, have you ever seen Mr. Dunn exhibit violent
14 behavior?

15 A No.

16 Q Okay, and is there anything else that you would like
17 the Court to know about Mr. Dunn?

18 A He is hard working and he has values that his dad and 19 I raised him with.

20 Q And would you -- you wouldn't help him flee or 21 anything like that?

22 A No.

23 Q Okay, and in fact when he was arrested, was he 24 compliant and obeying the officers?

25 A Yes, uh-huh.

1 Q Okay, he didn't try to resist arrest or harm anyone?

2 A No, ma'am.

3 MS. ADAMS: Okay. No further questions, Your Honor.

4 MS. SMITH: No questions, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: All right. Thank you, ma'am. You may
6 step down.

7 Ms. Adams, do you have any further witnesses to 8 present or evidence to proffer to the Court at this time?

9 (Witness is excused)

10 MS. ADAMS: I do have evidence for proffer, Your
11 Honor.

12 THE COURT: If you'll please proceed.

13 MS. ADAMS: May I approach, Your Honor?

14 THE COURT: Yes, please.

15 MS. ADAMS: Your Honor, what I have provided
16 is -- these are from Lubbock County, Texas in regards his 17 previous probation. There were -- it's just basically a
18 history of all the settings and the events that happened.

19 The second document is the previous probation
20 violation motion. If you look at the last page, the first and 21 the -- it would be the second page because there's a page for 22 the (indiscernible), they do list his failed urinalysis. The 23 last one they list was in April of 2019.

24 However, on the previous page, the last failed one
25 was actually in 2018. And I contacted the Court to verify

1 that. So we're -- that's the last of his failed urinalysis was 2 in 2018.

3 And Mr. Dunn did complete the probation and was 4 discharged from the further adjudication probation. So I saw
5 in the Pre-trial -- I'm sorry, and the Pre-trial Services
6 Report, that's what I refer to it as, that has showed a
7 conviction.

8 Neither -- he was not convicted of either offense.
9 He -- both of them were dismissed after he was discharged from 10 probation.

11 THE COURT: Okay, and I'll just confirm, is there any 12 objection to the proffer?

13 MS. SMITH: No, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: All right, then we'll go ahead and mark.
15 The last exhibit was Defendant's Exhibit 6. So we will 16 collectively mark these documents, these three documents
17 together as Defendant's Exhibit 7.

18 All right, Ms. Adams, do you have anything further to 19 proffer to the Court at this time?

20 (Defendant's Exhibit 7 admitted into evidence)

21 MS. ADAMS: No, Your Honor. If I may have -- if the 22 Court will allow argument?

23 THE COURT: I will. In light of the fact that this
24 is not a presumption case, I'll hear from the Government first.

25 MS. SMITH: Your Honor, this is not a presumption

1 case. However, there are just too many red flags here. This
2 isn't a Mr. Dunn has lived with Ms. Decker for a month and a
3 half and been nice and she doesn't know if he smokes marijuana.

4 This is repeated behavior. The reason he was on 5 probation, although he wasn't convicted of it, both were 6 violent incidents, one with a firearm, one was slashing
7 someone's tires.

8 The probation officer who did -- finally, he did
9 discharge, which we acknowledge from probation said she 10 was -- he said she was the only law enforcement officer he 11 didn't want to kill.

12 And then we have those posts. And not just one post
13 where he's mad, as many people in America are about what 14 happened to George Floyd.

15 There's several posts. Shoot those officers. Any 16 time there's an officer, let's shoot him. Let's line them up
17 and shoot them.

18 And then, they go to his house and they find three 19 guns and marijuana, which Ms. Decker now says is hemp, but told 20 the officers it was marijuana and also told the officers she 21 got it in Washington and then told me she didn't.

22 So I'm not sure what the truth is there. The point
23 is there's marijuana in house. There's guns in the house.
24 He's made several threats.

25 Because of his charges in Lubbock, he was discharged

1 from the military. He did have, although he did finally
2 successfully complete it, he had many, many violations of his
3 probation. He's not a good candidate for release. He kept
4 testing positive and kept testing positive, not just for 5 marijuana, but also for cocaine.

6 And he had other failures to comply. Failure to 7 report, commission of a new offense, alcohol abuse, other
8 violations in these.

9 Then he gets another chance. He's extended one more
10 time. Then he has more violations. Use of cocaine and 11 opiates. Tested positive for both of those on the second one.
12 So if you combine all of the circumstances, Your Honor.

13 And there's no doubt that Mr. and Mrs. Dunn are very 14 nice people. That's not the issue here.

15 The issue is this Mr. Dunn, who has done repeatedly 16 over and over made threats of violence and is a danger to the 17 community. And we'd ask the Court to detain him.

18 THE COURT: Thank you.

19 Ms. Adams?

20 MS. ADAMS: Yes, Your Honor, sorry. I forgot
21 something. I forgot I had something. May I approach, Your 22 Honor?

23 THE COURT: You may.

24 Any objection? All right, there being no objection
25 then, this will be admitted as Defendant's Exhibit Number 8.

1 Ms. Adams, you may proceed with argument.

2 (Defendant's Exhibit 8 admitted into evidence)

3 MS. ADAMS: Thank you, Your Honor. What I've handed
4 you, what I provided, is the order of the further adjudication
5 from Lubbock County.

6 And if you look at the subsequent pages, there is a
7 laundry list of conditions. And Lubbock has one of the 8 strictest requirements for probation throughout the state of 9 Texas. And he complied and he was successfully discharged.

10 The Government brought up that he had a violation for 11 having -- committing a new offense, a new offense that was 12 never charged, that he was never charged with. And that 13 probation violation was subsequently dismissed.

14 Contrary to the Pre-trial Services Report, Mr. Dunn
15 has no criminal history. He completed his deferred
16 adjudication for his offense on very, very strict requirements,
17 that even restricted his travel and gave him a curfew and other
18 requirements.

19 And those requirements are similar to what the Court
20 can do here. The Court can give him a curfew. The Court can 21 place him on electronic leg monitor. The Court can even put 22 him on full house arrest.

23 While on probation, Mr. Dunn did have -- did test
24 positive for marijuana and other drugs as I provided to you
25 with the violation. The last one was in 2018. So we're at two

1 years since his last positive U.A.

2 In regards to the alleged statements by his probation
3 officer that he's anti-government and that she's the only
4 person that he would trust, that's contrary to everything here.
5 He was in the military. His dad is a -- was a federal agent
6 for years.

7 And in regards to him -- the post about the boogaloo
8 movement, they're white nationalists, so it can't go hand and 9 hand because he's out here supporting black people and black
10 people's rights.

11 And, oh, sorry, Mr. Dunn and his family are willing 12 to assist him in getting support, complying with the rules. He 13 does not have a passport.

14 He had other witnesses that were willing to come.
15 They came -- they were coming on Monday, but because it was 16 cancelled.

17 And due to the restrictions with the Court, they did
18 not appear today. We did -- I -- because there were other
19 cases on the docket and I knew that there were restrictions.

20 In addition, since Monday, there were no Covid-19
21 cases in Collin County Jail. As of last night, there were 22 three.

23 And I would like the Court to consider that in 24 releasing Mr. Dunn and having him susceptible to contracting
25 Covid when he can be on home confinement or electronic leg

1 monitoring.

2 Mr. Dunn is not a flight risk. He's lived, other
3 than when he was stationed in Lubbock, he's 30 years old. He's
4 been in the Eastern District for 28 years.

5 Mr. Dunn has always worked. He, like other
6 Americans, are working less due to Covid and the current 7 unemployment rate.

8 Mr. Dunn still works for his family at their ranch
9 and assisting their family with maintaining their property, and 10 selling his leather products, and will return to work if the 11 Court allows upon his release.

12 Mr. Dunn, if he was the threat that the Government
13 state that he is, when he was arrested, people who are a threat
14 and anti-government and all these things, they don't get up and 15 open the door for the cops.

16 He got -- he opened the door for the officers and did
17 not attempt to flee, did not attempt to resist arrest. Even by 18 the agent's own testimony, he was cooperative. He did not have 19 any type of issues.

20 In fact, the only -- he left his home in his 21 underwear without even clothes. He -- and I think that most 22 people, of course, would want pants. He was extremely 23 compliant and helpful.

24 Mr. Dunn is not going to flee. There are several,
25 several conditions that the Court can impose like as I stated,

1 a curfew, home confinement, electronic leg monitoring.

2 And I am asking that the Court release Mr. Dunn and
3 he also provide U.A., urinalysis testing, to the Court if it
4 requires that.

5 Mr. Dunn is -- and his family are willing to meet any
6 set of conditions that the Court provides for his release.

7 THE COURT: Ms. Adams, I'd like an opportunity
8 obviously to look at the documents you've proffered, but I do
9 have a question.

10 MS. ADAMS: Uh-huh.

11 THE COURT: In the order of deferred adjudication
12 you've provided to the Court, it indicates that he was 13 being -- when he was on probation, he was remaining in Denton
14 County and was being supervised there.

15 So during each of the urinalysis that he's alleged to 16 have failed in 2016, '17, and '18, was he residing with his 17 parents at that time?

18 MS. ADAMS: Yes.

19 THE COURT: All right. Anything further from the 20 Government in argument at this time?

21 MS. SMITH: No, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: All right, I am going to take the matter
23 under advisement. I need an opportunity obviously to review
24 each of the reports, Ms. Adams, that you proffered to the 25 Court.

1           As well, my understanding is that as far as
2           information that was provided to Pre-trial Services for running
3           of criminal histories, we only have one of the residence that 4           is at the ranch property where you're requesting that he be,
5           you know, permitted to reside.

6           MS. ADAMS: Uh-huh.

7           THE COURT: And so, I'm going to ask if you can
8           provide information to Pre-trial Services, so that the criminal 9           histories can be obtained for all persons who will be residing 10          at the property that you're requesting Mr. Dunn be released to.

11          After I receive that information from Pre-trial
12          Services and have an opportunity to review the evidence you 13          proffered to the Court, following that, I'll make my 14          determination.

15          If it's necessary, we'll reconvene for entry of 16          conditions or I'll otherwise enter an order of detention.

17          Is there anything further from the Government at this 18          time?

19          MS. SMITH: No, Your Honor, thank you.

20          THE COURT: Ms. Adams, anything further from you?

21          MS. ADAMS: No, but I do have a question.

22          THE COURT: You may ask a question.

23          MS. ADAMS: You said we may reconvene. So is it okay
24          for me to leave Court or should I stay here?

25          THE COURT: No, I have to get Pre-trial. You're

1 going to need to get that information and Pre-trial will have
2 run those histories.

3 And I can't guarantee you how long it's going to take
4 for them to run that or get the information to me, so that I
5 can review it.

6 So I don't anticipate being able to make a
7 determination today, because I'll have to get that information
8 from Pre-trial before I can do it. So, yes, we're going to 9 adjourn Court at this time.

10 And if after I receive that information from 11 Pre-trial, I determine to release your client, we'll reconvene
12 for the purposes of entering conditions.

13 MS. ADAMS: Okay.

14 THE COURT: All right?

15 MS. ADAMS: Thank you.

16 THE COURT: Any other questions, Ms. Adams?

17 MS. ADAMS: No, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: All right, so Mr. Dunn, I want to make 19 sure that you understand what's going on, all right? Your 20 lawyer's given me a lot of information at this time. And so,
21 what I'm going to do is I'm going to review all of it.

22 And in addition to that, I've asked her to provide
23 some additional information to Pre-trial Services, so I have a
24 better understanding of the persons that she's asking for you
25 to go home and reside with.

1                   Once I get that information, I'll make a decision.

2           Do you have any questions, sir?

3                   THE DEFENDANT: I don't.

4                   THE COURT: All right, so at this time, you're going
5           to go back with the Marshal Service and you will go back to 6           Collin County.

7                   And then as soon as I've made my determination, your
8           lawyer will be advised and she'll be able to speak with you
9           about what's going to happen from there, okay?

10                  THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

11                  THE COURT: All right, if there's nothing further
12           then, we will be adjourned. Thank you, everyone.

14                  MS. SMITH: Thank you.
